Directions for completing the Low-Income Exemption Application (Placer County)

Submit completed application (one application per parcel) with supporting documentation via email or US mail to the following address: Truckee FPD Special Tax Administrator, Attn: Measure T Low-Income Exemption, 4745 Mangels Blvd, Fairfield, CA 94534 or via email to TFPD-Exemption@sci-cg.com.

1. To qualify for the exemption, you must own and occupy the single-family home as your principal residence. Please fill in your last, first, and middle name, along with the parcel number and address. Approved exemptions will receive an exemption for 100% of the Measure T Special Tax levied on the parcel for which a low-income exemption application is submitted. Eligible property owners must reapply each tax year.
2. Supporting documentation must be included with your application. Examples of supporting documentation include legible income tax returns, payroll stubs, social security benefit letters, rent receipts (for rental income) and other award letters for all persons, which substantiate the above-stated amounts of personal income for each family member. All taxable and non-taxable income is included in the combined household income.

Property Tax Year	Income Required
2024/2025	2023 Income

If submitting individual income tax return, attach a copy of page 1 and 2.

If individual income tax return includes a Schedule 1, attach a copy of Schedule 1.

If Schedule 1 has a value on line 3, attach a copy of Schedule C.

If Schedule 1 has a value on line 5, attach a copy of Schedule E.

3. From item 2, total the number of residents and total the combined household income to check against the Combined 2023 Household Income table.
4. If your combined household income from all sources for the 2023 calendar year is at or below 80% of the median family income for Placer County United States Department of Housing and Urban Development Metro Fair Market Rents Area, you may be eligible for an exemption from the Measure T Wildfire Prevention Special Tax.
5. Be sure to print name, sign, provide contact information and date the application. If a co-owner is listed on the property, they must print their name, sign, provide contact information and date the application.

Submission of documents does not guarantee approval. Additional documentation may be requested.
